Dedication

TO YOU—WHEREVER YOU ARE, IN WHATEVER BRANCH OF SERVICE YOU ARE—TO YOU WHO SPENT FOUR YEARS IN UNION'S HALLS OF LEARNING; FOUR FLEETING YEARS OF JOYS AND SORROWS, HAPPINESS AND HEARTACHES; AND TO YOU WHO DIDN'T GET TO FINISH; YOU WHO WERE PERHAPS ONLY HALF WAY ALONG THE ROAD, BUT WHO ARE DEAR TO THE HEARTS OF YOUR MANY FRIENDS, AND TO YOU WHO WERE WITH US ONLY A SHORT TIME THIS YEAR, AS FRESHMEN; YOU WERE ONLY BEGINNING TO KNOW UNION AS SHE REALLY IS, BUT YOU WERE OURS FOR A WHILE AND WE SHALL CLAIM YOU THROUGHOUT THE YEARS—IT IS TO YOU, OUR BOYS IN SERVICE, THAT WE DEDICATE OUR YEARBOOK, TO HELP YOU REMEMBER UNION AS YOU KNEW HER, LEST WE FORGET.

DR. JOHN HURT
PRESIDENT

Dean S. S. Sargent has endeared himself to each of Union's students through his kindness, his generosity, and his never-failing patience toward each one. He is a true and loyal friend of Union and his worth and ability as dean have made for him a place which could be filled by no other.

He has shouldered the added responsibilities and duties which have come his way this year as a real man and we know that though the way is hard he will lead us on till victory is ours and Union takes up her peace-time duties again. We salute you, Dean Sargent!

Mrs. Dee E. Rice, who for many years was Dean of Women, has now taken upon herself added responsibilities as teacher and is proving her versatility in this field. She is not only head of the Latin Department but is now in charge of the Freshman English classes.

Now in charge of all the girls on Union's campus is Mrs. D. W. Luckey. Having formerly been matron of Crook Hall, she has now taken up her new duties in Lovelace Hall, leaving Crook for the soldiers on our campus to occupy. Her kindness in dealing with "her" girls has endeared her to each one.

MR. F. S. WISE History
 B.S.E., University of Arkansas, 1929; M.A., University of Arkansas, 1936.

MISS LOUISE SUBLETTE

better known to us as "Pris," has assumed greater responsibilities this year than ever, for, as hostess of Dorcas Hall, it is her duty to see that the soldiers on our campus are adequately fed and served.

MRS. RENA SUBLETTE

who is "Ma" to us students, is now hostess of the tea room where she efficiently feeds the regular college students who find fellowship and friendliness there, as well as food for their bodies.

A L M A M A T E R

(Tune—"Juanita")

O, Alma Mater, our affections cling to thee,
Faithful and loyal may we ever be.
May our Master's watchcare
O'er us one and all extend
'Till again in Union
Heart and voice we blend.

Dear Alma Mater, hear thy offspring's plighted vow!
Firmer and truer may we be than now.
Memory fondly lingers,
Calling back departed days.
Every task grows lighter
As we sing thy praise.

Loved Alma Mater, o'er us shed scholastic light,
E'en as we wander from thy halls tonight.
And though years divide us,
And in distant lands we roam,
Oft in dreams we'll gather
'Round our "Home Sweet Home."

Chorus:

Union, dearest Union,
Yes, we'll sing thy spreading fame!
Union, dearest Union,
Honored be thy name.

—Words by Frank Kimsey, Class of '21.

CLASSES

Alpha Tau Omega was founded at Richmond, Virginia, on September 11, 1865, by Otis Allan Glazebrook, Alfred Marshall, and Erskine Mayo Ross. The official organ is "The Palm," a quarterly established in 1880 and published regularly since that time. Frank W. Scott is the present editor. The badge of the fraternity is a cross formed of black enamel with a circular central panel upon which is shown, in gold, a crescent near the top, three stars immediately below the crescent, the letter T in the center and at the bottom two hands clasped. The arms of the cross display the letters A and Ω vertically and the letters Ω and A horizontally. The colors are sky blue and old gold and the flower is the white tea rose. Beta Tau was established in 1893.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded at the University of Alabama, March 9, 1845, by Noble Leslie Devotie, John B. Rudolph, John W. Kerr, Wade Foster, Nathan E. Cockrell, Abner Patton, Samuel Dennis, and Thomas C. Cook. The fraternity magazine, the "Record," is edited by Lauren S. Foreman and is published quarterly. The chapter publication is "The Lion's Roar."

The badge is diamond-shaped, a little less than an inch in diameter, and bears on a groundwork of black enamel the device of Minerva, with a lion crouching at her feet, above which are the letters $\Sigma \text{ A } \text{ E}$ in gold. Below are the letters $\Phi \text{ A}$ on a white ground in a wreath. The colors are royal purple and old gold and the flower is the violet. Tennessee Eta Chapter was established in 1857.

Chi Omega was organized at the University of Arkansas, April 5, 1895, by Ina May Boles, Jobelle Holcomb, Alice Carey Simonds, and Jeanne Marie Vincenheller. They were assisted in planning their organization by Dr. Charles Richardson, Kappa Sigma. Publications include the "Eleusis," is issued quarterly and edited by Christelle Ferguson; "The Owl," and the "Mystagogue." The badge is a gold monogram of the letters X over the Ω, which letter displays on its arch the letters "P B Y H Σ" and an owl and skull and crossbones in black enamel. The X is set with pearls or diamonds, no other stones being allowed. The colors are cardinal and straw and the flower is the white carnation. Upsilon chapter was established in 1904-1911 and reestablished in 1924.

"We, the fraternity women of America, stand for preparation for service through the character building inspired in the close contact and deep friendship of fraternity life. To us, fraternity life is not the enjoyment of special privileges.

but an opportunity to prepare for wide and wise human service."

Hypatia is a literary organization, composed of sixteen members, which meets twice each month to enjoy a review of some outstanding literary work—a work which may range from the classics to the most modern. Under the guidance of Mrs. Hardin, the members are acquiring each year a deeper appreciation and a more thorough knowledge of the best in literature. Due to the war conditions the club has dispensed with the dinner meetings.

Home-Echo, the Junior Home Economics Club, was organized in 1935. It has grown until it is now one of the outstanding clubs of the campus. Freshmen and Sophomore girls having an average of B in Home Economics are eligible for membership. The club meets twice each month at Crook Hall, with two girls as hostesses. Such programs as are of interest to the college girls and the home economics students are given. Members of this club assist the members of the Tri-V in many of their activities.

"We can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth us." (Philippians 4:13.)

The Baptist Student Union is the middle link of a three-link chain that binds the Church, the Student and the School together in the Master's work on the campus. The Baptist Student Union Council is the executive body of all religious groups on the campus. The members of this council are elected annually by the student body and a representative from each religious organization and from each church is automatically elected to the council.

The outstanding event of the year was the State Convention which met at Nashville, Tennessee. Union was represented by John Huffman, State B. S. U. President, and also the local president. Paul Turner was elected third vice-president of the Convention for 1943.

The J. R. Graves Society of Religious Inquiry was organized in honor of Dr. J. R. Graves in 1877. The purpose of the society is to bring ministerial students face to face with the problems of the ministry and to give them practice and training in their life's work. The motto of the society is "Search the Scriptures." Many members of the ministerial group serve as pastors of rural, village, and town churches in West Tennessee and adjoining states. These young preachers are making a mighty contribution to the progress of Baptists and the cause of Christ in the vicinity of the school.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The music department at Union is under the direction of two very capable instructors—Mrs. A. Warren Prince and Mr. Cecil Bolton.

Mrs. Prince, director of the conservatory, is an artist of high rank. She is a concert pianist and teacher of widely recognized ability. She has studied extensively both in America and Europe. She also is an organist of note and has been organist of the First Baptist Church since her residence in Jackson. Mrs. Prince is a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs, the MacDowell Music Club and is Counselor of the Seventh District of Tennessee Federated Music Clubs. She also is a member of the Chi Omega fraternity and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mr. Bolton is both organist and choirmaster of Cavalry Baptist Church, and is pianist for all the major civic clubs of Jackson. He is a member of the American Guild of Organists, the MacDowell Music Club, and also Pi Kappa Alpha national fraternity. He has won all the contests offered by the Federation of Music Clubs. Each year he gives concerts throughout the Southern and Western states. Included in this year's tour were Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Illinois, and Oklahoma, where Mr. Bolton played in concerts for various music clubs.

DEPARTMENT OF SPEECH AND DRAMA

The Department of Speech and Drama, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Loyd, has achieved outstanding recognition on the campus in drama, public speaking and interpretation.

Footlights Club was organized as the dramatic vehicle of the department in 1939. There were sixteen charter members. The present membership totals forty students, who have shown an interest in and talent for drama.

The club sponsors one major production each year and one night devoted to one-act plays that is called "Variety Night." At this year's "Variety Night" three one-act plays were presented, namely: "Paul Faces the Tire Shortage" by Chris Sergel, "A Gown for the Bride" by Anne Martens, "The Humming Bird Hiccups" by Albert Carriere.

"The Girls Take Over," a top notch comedy of life in Washington, D. C. today, by Peggy Fernway, was the major achievement of the club.

Tau Kappa Alpha is the only national forensic fraternity which belongs to the National Council of Honor Societies. To be eligible for membership one must possess and display unusual forensic ability and have a high scholastic average.

The aim of this society is not social, but intellectual—purposing to discover and develop the dramatic talent on the campus. Such activities as the Intramural Debate and Oratorical Tournament and the Mid-South High School Debate Tourney, which are always sponsored by T K A were canceled this year in cooperation with national regulations.

The editor of our 1943 "Lest We Forget," Jeanne DeMent, has done a grand job in putting out this "wartime" annual. In spite of priorities, rationing, and other war restrictions, Jeanne has given us a printed volume of memories of this epoch-making year. She has been capably assisted by Ray Dobbins as business manager and the other members of her staff.

CARDINAL AND CREAM

The Cardinal and Cream this school year met its publication dates to perfection until January. It came out once a month for three months and with the remaining days of school it came out with considerable irregularity.

The first few issues experienced a change in make-up. It was decided later that the old style was the best and again the Cardinal and Cream was back in the groove it has been in for many years.

A screwball edition was edited again this year. It was perhaps the most discussed screwball edition Union has ever had, nevertheless it was the best.

The staff was headed by Wallace Wilson, editor; Merle Basden, associate editor. It included Bob Sullivan and Shelby Counce, sports editors; Mildred Manley, society editor; and Carey Hester, crack feature editor.

The staff varied from issue to issue but at one time or another the following contributed to the Cardinal and Cream: Anita Burnette, J. T. Ford, James Day, Betty Jo Robinson, Don Kelso, Earl Hester, Herman Jacobs, Ralph Wilson, Bob Sawyer, Betty Ann Cole, Jim Irwin, Ellenor Harrison, Dorothy Sanders, Bruce Wills, and Christine Clinard.

The Kardinal Key Klub, a booster club, was organized to sponsor any movement for the betterment of our school spirit, clean sportsmanship, and love for our Alma Mater. It is one of the most outstanding organizations on the campus.

The membership consists of sixteen students

The club has had much success this year in creating an unusually fine school spirit.

Union has come to be recognized throughout the South as the producer of top-notch debate teams. During the 1942 season Union's crack debaters traveled extensively over the South and East. Clinard and Ford were teamed together in the Senior divisions to rank first in the State, Mid-South and Grand Eastern National Tournaments and placed second in the Southern, in all these encounters losing only to the University of Florida. The other teams were likewise successful, placing near the top in each contest, Fred Wood coming in for high individual honors.

Travel this year has been impossible and only one major contest, the Delta Tourney at Jackson, Mississippi, has been participated in by our teams. In this Frey, Wood and Ford were teamed together to win a cup in the Senior Division with Masters and Ragan coping a Junior trophy.

Union is proud of her success in forensic circles—Mr. Farnsworth has won for himself and his school widespread fame and glory in the training of students as public speakers, orators and debaters.

ATHLETICS

CHEERING FOR THE Bulldogs

Coaches

Union was indeed fortunate to have three very efficient men to guide the athletics this year. These are: Fred Delay, head coach; George Richardson, assistant line coach; and Harry Hurt, athletic director.

Coach Fred Delay finished his fifth season as head coach of the Union University Bulldogs in a blaze of glory. His charges won seven out of nine games and the two he lost were against Southeastern Conference competition.

For five seasons he has been shooting at the 200-point mark and this year the Union team climaxed that effort with 211 points and were held scoreless in one encounter. They held their opponents to a total of 75 points.

A burden was thrown on the squatty mentor when three of his assistants entered the armed forces. With the aid of 17 returning lettermen, however, and eight of those seniors, his load was lightened greatly.

Fred Delay spent five years building a winning team for Union and his last team for the duration was the greatest Union has ever boasted. Fred Delay coached the first Union team ever to win an S. I. A. A. title.

George Richardson, line coach, is affectionately known to the squad as "Big George." George produced one of the best, if not the best line Union has ever had. Only 13 points were scored against the line in S. I. A. A. The Richardson-coached line held the highly touted Vanderbilt Commodores to 96 yards gained during the entire game.

George was more than a coach—he was a friend to all, and was respected by every one. He fathered the team on most of the trips when Coach Delay was away on scouting trips.

Harry Hurt, son of the president of Union, served as athletic director of the team. Taking care of the business end of the athletics Harry served admirably in every phase of his duty.

His duty called for arranging the schedule, taking care of the traveling duties and seeing that Union was getting a square deal from every angle.

FOOTBALL SEASON

The Union Bulldogs emerged victorious in 7 of their 9 encounters during the autumn madness that had everybody agog for three glorious thrill-packed months. Decisively whipping the socks off the major teams of the S. I. A. A. and having only one close call and that was in the climax of the most successful year a Union football squad has ever enjoyed.

Losing their only two games was bad but they still have the satisfaction of knowing they were Southeastern foes who treated the Union gridgers to shame. Mississippi State handed Union a defeat in the first game of the year. Playing in weather equivalent to the tropics and on a slippery field the Union squad went down in defeat by a 35 to 2 count. Not only was the weather warm but the Red squad from Jackson had to be satisfied with only a few substitutions while the Maroons had more reserves than a W. P. A. breadline.

Casey Jones was at his best and it was he who set up the Union score with a beautiful spiraling boot that traveled far and settled out of bounds on the State six-inch line. The Maroons attempted to kick out but Jack Kaley rushed through and blocked the boot for a safety and the only two points Union made.

Union crushed the U. T. Junior Vols 53 to 0 on Rothrock field and were off to a six-game winning streak. Casey Jones, the Galloping Ghost of Death Valley, was only in the fray a few spectacular moments as was the entire first team. The last quarter the Union Bull Pups took command and scored on the Junior Vols. A short aerial, Webb to Garrott, netted the score. Highlight of the night was the pass interception and the following dazzling spine-tickling run by freshman wingback Gil Gideon. He intercepted a pass on his 50 and covered at least 150 yards reversing his field and running laterally before getting into the clear on the 5-yard line and then he dropped the ball.

Union trimmed Murray State the following week 39 to 0. Casey Jones punted, passed, and ran the Thorobreds in the ground. He personally crossed the double stripe twice and passed for two more touchdowns. Early in the ball game, too, Casey took a 'Bred punt on his ten and gathering steam he crossed the 50-yard stripe with the throttle wide open. The Murray squad couldn't even flag the Florence Express much less stop him, and the high-flying Jones crossed the goal line standing up after romping 90 yards behind some superb blocking by his comrades.

Defensively Ralph Jones, Wallace Wilson, J. C. Dixon, Hugh Coltharp, and Charles House were outstanding. Wilson leaped high to knock down a sure touchdown pass, keeping the Union slate clean in S. I. A. A. competition.

Union journeyed to Memphis and avenged the previous year's defeat when they thumped the tigers from Memphis State 30 to 0. Casey Jones scored twice, Coltharp took a pass for another, Dewey Northington bulled for another, and Kaley scored another one.

House, Henry Brazelton, Ed Brazelton, Dixon, Wilson, Parker, Brush and all that saw service did the school honor in the manner they played that day.

The Bulldogs entrained for Western Kentucky and came back to Jackson after a victorious week-end. It was Union all the way even though the Hilltoppers took the opening kick-off and were off like a house afire, but this didn't last long. Donovan Gary intercepted a Western pass on the Union 42 and raced down the side lines untouched for the score. The crowd had hardly settled when Casey Jones opened up and twisted 16 yards for the second score. Wallace Wilson sneaked over for the third touchdown and Bobby Sadler counted for the fourth. Casey galloped again in the last quarter and set up the last score with a beautiful end sweep that was good for 30 yards. Sadler went across for the last score and when the final whistle blew Union had piled up 38 points to Western's 0.

The Big Red squad journeyed to Murray and beat the Thorobreds the second time, this time the count being 14 to 0. In a sea battle unequaled anywhere, the Bulldogs shoved across two early scores, and played defensive ball the rest of the fray relying on the beautiful punting of Casey Jones to keep them out of trouble.

Union defeated Ouachita Tigers the next week in a Homecoming game at Rothrock stadium for their sixth straight win. The perennial Arkansas champions came to Union boasting a record of not having lost a game in two years. They didn't bring their writeups along with them to scare the Bulldogs and Union took the opening kick-off and marched across the goal line in five plays with Donovan Gary going across for the initial score. Casey was hitting his receivers in the eyes that night in spite of the fact that there was a muddy field and a slick ball. Three passes in succession netted the next score; first to brother Ralph, then to Coltharp, and again to Ralph across the goal.

Casey booted 13 times for an average of 47.5 that night; two punts going over 60 yards. He completed nine out of twelve attempts at passes.

Twice the Tigers held the Bulldogs for downs inside the 5-yard line. The Bulldogs' line was very effective and the Tigers never threatened seriously.

Union's victory string was snapped at Nashville when the Vanderbilt Commodores defeated Union 27 to 0 the next week. Jenkins, Rohling, Moore, and Rebrovich were too much, along with a bad case of fumbleitis developed on the part of the Union ball carriers. Casey Jones was the most outstanding player that day with his elusive running and long booting; breaking into the clear twice, once for 38 yards and another for 52. Red Sanders, Vandy coach, said that he is one of the greatest backs ever to perform on McGugin field.

Union lowered the curtain on their thrill-packed season with a 14 to 13 victory over T. P. I. at Cookeville. The Tech Eagles pushed over a quick touchdown pass and led the Bulldogs until the second half started. Union, then, started the ball rolling behind the button-hole passing of Ed Brazelton. Union's second brother combination clicked for the first touchdown—Ed to Henry was all that was needed for it. The second score came when Ed heaved to Don Gary for 23 yards and a score. These two touchdowns came so fast the Eagles didn't know what had happened. Tom Nield kicked the all-important two points after the touchdowns.

Casey's punting was a big factor in the game, and fumbles were costly to the squad. Juggling the ball 8 times and 5 inside the T. P. I. 10-yard line the Union squad were really off their usual brilliant game.

Union finished the season with five wins and no losses in the S. I. A. A. and therefore laid claim to the conference title.
